A Helping Hand

You've no doubt read about the propensity of young homebuyers relying on their parents for help with their down payments. In fact, more than one-third of Millennials looking to purchase their first home are reportedly relying on financial help from a relative. Is it a good idea to contribute to your own child's down payment, either as a gift or as a loan?

Responsible Relocating

Whether you're moving across the country or just across town, you can, with a little bit of pre-planning, make your move an easier, more environmentally-friendly one!
